

NATIONAL WORKSHOP ON GOOGLE TOOLS

Beyond The Chalk: Digital Classroom

31st August & 1st September, 2019

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Google education technology for the classroom provides educators with tools for digital portfolios, online assessment, data visualization, word processing, peer-to-peer collaboration, and more. These tools can play big roles in the classroom and information sharing. These tools from Google, whether old and familiar or new and improved, help to keep educators and students inspired, inventive, and organized. Google tools like Google Drive and Google Classroom serves as a hub for the exchange of information. By learning to use these resources, educator can better manage the different pieces of work they create and students turn in. This workshop will focus on the use of Google tools to help manage the steady flow of work. We will explore the different ways, educators can create a digital environment by using Google tools as a hub to connect resources with students/users. Participants will have an opportunity to explore all aspects of Google tools available for educators.

OBJECTIVE OF THE WORKSHOP

The goal of this workshop is to promote the use of Google tools that help success for teachers, and most importantly students. This workshop is designed to transform the traditional learning environment beyond the classroom walls and hands-on training will be provided for freely available Google tools. The workshop will consist of modules based on topic. Participants will be engaged in learning about the many different aspects of Google tools and how these tools can be implemented within their institution.

OUTLINE OF THE WORKSHOP

In the Workshop, hands-on experience will be provided in the following tools of Google.

- Google Classroom
- Google Drive
- Google Docs
- Google Sheets
- Google Forms (Survey and Quiz)
- Introduction to other tools of Google: Google Drawings; Gmail; Google Calendar; Google Hangouts; Google Sites; Google Groups; Chrome; YouTube; Google Maps/Earth and Blogger
